

FINAL WRITING PROJECT
SPN 1 AND 2

Project Description: You are going to write a story (fairy tale, myth or legend) for your final project. You will present this to me as your verbal presentation for a portion of your final exam grade.

I. Create a list of at least 20 additional vocabulary words that you used in your story. This portion of the assignment is a daily work grade (10 pts.).

II. Your resources

A. Use vocabulary and grammar from within the chapter packets and any activities you completed this trimester.

B. Use frases del día that will compliment your written composition

C. Use wordreference.com as a resource

II. Begin writing your story. Work to create a story line that will include a beginning, middle and end. Your readers should be able to identify the theme or message of your story. You should also have at least 2 main characters and your writing should describe the setting of the story each time a location changes (50 pts, unit assessment grade).

A. Please include a variety of vocabulary and use your notes from past tense grammar instruction.

B. A minimum of 4 paragraphs 5-7 sentences in length.

III. Once it is written, show it to Señora for corrections. Then begin to practice it out loud.

You need to develop fluency in your reading which means it shouldn't sound choppy when you read your story out loud.

A. Practice by yourself (put each paragraph on its own note card)

B. Practice with a friend. Take turns reading to/performing for each other.

C. This story should be practically memorized when you present it to me.

IV. You will present this to Señora as the speaking portion of your final exam (1/3 of final exam grade which equals 5% of your overall grade)

A. You will present your final product to senora for your verbal final exam.

Due: Monday, November 18, 2013
